

Shienel

Hi! I'm

Shienel Hodgson

Shienel is a dedicated and experienced support worker with a strong clinical background and a genuine passion for helping others. With many years of experience across hospital, retirement village, and community settings, she brings professionalism, compassion, and confidence to her role. Shienel is committed to providing respectful, person-centred care that promotes comfort, dignity, and independence for every client.

Profile

-  Mid-Life
-  Female
-  Tauranga
-  Years of Experience :
3+ Years

Words That My Friends Would Use to Describe Me:

Warm Supportive
Kind Enthusiastic
Caring Trustworthy

Interest & Hobbies

Reading

Gardening

Movies

Cooking

Relevant Qualifications

- ★ Driver's Licence
- ★ Healthcare Qualifications:
 - Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Level 4)
 - Degree in Nursing

Industry Experience

Shienel has extensive experience across hospital, retirement village, and community care settings, where she has supported a wide range of clients with varying needs. With her background as a qualified nurse and a Level 4 Certificate in Health and Wellbeing, she brings strong clinical knowledge and practical skills to her role. Shienel is committed to providing compassionate, person-centred care and supporting clients to maintain their independence and wellbeing.