Hi! I'm Krystelle May Parfitt

Krysi is a compassionate, deeply resilient, and community-minded caregiver who has lived in Mount Maunganui for nine years. Having navigated her own extended recovery from an injury, she possesses a rare, first-hand understanding of what it truly feels like to receive care, driving her commitment to delivering dignified, empathetic support. Krysi brings a lifelong passion for people to her work, viewing time spent with older adults less like a job and more like visiting dear friends and family.
