Home Carers
Reliable Aged Care Since 2014

Hi! I'm Yeon Ji Oh

Yeon Ji

Yeon Ji is a culturally attuned, empathetic, and dedicated caregiver with a life-long commitment to helping others. Born in South Korea and having begun her care journey early through volunteer work with Age Concern and Metlifecare Retirement Village, she developed a deep appreciation for companionship, active listening, and respectful care. Tri-lingual and skilled in cross-cultural communication, she focuses on building authentic connections that help clients feel truly valued, comfortable, and safe..

Profile

- Early 30's
- Female
- Tauranga
- 3+ Years of Experience :
  3+ Years

Words That My Friends Would Use to Describe Me:

Reliable | Multilingual | Respectful | Trustworthy | Composed | Multilingual

Interest & Hobbies

Fitness & sports | Mindful wellness | Community service

Relevant Qualifications

- Driver's Licence
- Industry Qualifications:
  - Level 4 Health: Introduction to Health

Industry Experience

Yeon Ji offers a rich background of community service, including four years as an NZ Police Constable and dedicated volunteer work with Age Concern and Metlifecare Retirement Village. Her hands-on experience spans providing warm companionship, assisting with domestic routines, and supporting social integration for seniors. Combining high-level crisis response skills with gentle, person-centered care, she focuses on empowering older adults to preserve their autonomy and peace of mind in a safe environment.